“We will always remember our son’s 5th birthday party with great happiness. Being able to have it at his favorite place made it the best party he’s had. He talks about it often—usually to say that he wants to have it there every year!”

Designed to immerse kids in the Museum’s ongoing or special exhibitions, these seven parties feature character actors who will entertain and inspire kids to think about history and New York in fun, new ways.

CELEBRATE WITH COLONIAL CORNELIA

What was it like to be a New York kid during the Colonial years? Cornelia van Varick was eight years old in 1700 and she knows exactly what it was like! Cornelia will bring her favorite toys to share with the party, and she’ll show kids important skills like how to cross-stitch and use quill pens. This Colonial gal can even sing some nursery rhymes and twist a balloon animal or two! Ideal for kids ages 6-9.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH NELLIE BLY

America’s inspirational female star reporter takes this party on a trip around the world! Combining interactive storytelling and an exuberant sense of adventure, Nellie Bly shares moments from her famous 1889 trip. Wait until you see the size of her suitcase! This party is perfect for kids ages 8-12 who love to travel.

PIRATES IN THE HARBOR

Arghh! The New York harbor is full of ships in 1606—including that of Captain William Kidd. He was hunting pirates in the Red Sea, but soon became a pirate himself, sailing back here with a ship full of loot. Captain Kidd was arrested, but not before he hid his treasure on a nearby island! Don pirate hats and help First Mate Billy Leeds and/or Flora Burn piece together a secret treasure map. Younger kids ages 4-6 will have a blast at this interactive and energetic party.

HAMILTON IN THE ROOM

One of our country’s most influential founding fathers, Alexander Hamilton takes the party on a storytelling journey of his life, from his Caribbean origins to Washington’s aide-de-camp to his role as Secretary of the Treasury. Learn about dueling etiquette, sign the Constitution, and make a tricorn hat to wear! This party is ideal for kids 8 and up who want to be in the room where it happened.

PRESIDENTIAL PARTY WITH WASHINGTON

It’s 1789 and George Washington is sitting in New York City as America’s first president! President Washington shares stories of his battles, his election to the new executive office, and his beloved wife and farm. Kids don tricorns, engage in a Museum hunt, and sign the Constitution. This presidential experience is ideal for young leaders ages 7-12.
