

NEW-YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM & LIBRARY

Holiday Express: Trains and Toys from the Jerni Collection
On View November 27, 2020 – February 21, 2021

Selected PR Images

Holiday Express: Trains and Toys from the Jerni Collection returns to the New-York Historical Society this holiday season to delight and inspire children of all ages. This vibrant display of spectacular antique toy trains and toys celebrates the beauty and allure of toys from a bygone era.

A 360-degree miniature townscape showcases toy trains, miniature figures, and model buildings evoking the early 1900s. The Jerni Collection, New-York Historical Society

Holiday Express features more than 150 pieces from the Jerni Collection that transform the space into a magical wonderland. The Jerni Collection, New-York Historical Society

Video animations and Jerni Collection-inspired seating for children immerse visitors in an enchanting holiday experience.
The Jerni Collection, New-York Historical Society

H.E. Boucher, Blue Comet, 1929. The Jerni Collection, New-York Historical Society

Märklin, Grand station, 1904–08. The Jerni Collection, New-York Historical Society

Doll & Co. Ferris wheel, 1904. The Jerni Collection, New-York Historical Society

